

Embassy
of the Federal Republic of Germany
Dublin

German Remembrance Day 2014

Every year in November, Germany observes a Day of Remembrance in honour of all victims of the two World Wars. You are kindly invited to take part in the commemoration ceremony to be held in Glencree, Co. Wicklow on Sunday, 16 November 2014.

Programme:

11.45 a.m. Arrival of guests at St. Kevin's Chapel, Glencree

12 noon. Ecumenical service conducted by:

Father Damian MacNeice, Master of Ceremonies to the Archbishop of Dublin,

Pastor Martin Wielepp, Lutheran Church in Ireland,

Mr John Welsby, Member of the Parish Council of the Joint Parishes of Enniskerry,

Glencree, Curtlestown and Kilmacanogue, featuring the Goethe-Institut Choir Dublin (conducted by John Dexter) and students of Curtlestown National School and St. Kilian's German School Dublin

1 p.m. Walk to the German Military Cemetery Glencree

1.15 p.m. Commemoration and Wreath-Laying Ceremony

Address by German Ambassador Matthias Höpfner

Music: Goethe-Institut Choir, Trumpet: Dr Wolfgang Marx

1.30 p.m. Walk to the Armoury Café at the Glencree Centre for Peace and Reconciliation, followed by a reception hosted by the German Embassy

3.00 p.m. Conclusion of Remembrance Day

Kindly register your attendance at: rsvp@dubl.diplo.de

An Eaglais Liútarachin Éirinn
EVANGELISCH-LUTHERISCHE
KIRCHE IN IRLAND
The Lutheran Church in Ireland

Roman Catholic parishes of Enniskerry
Glencree, Curtlestown and Kilmacanogue

ionad síochána agus athmhuintearais gleann.crf